

India at 70:

Reflections on the Path Forward

Rahul Gandhi

Vice President, Indian
National Congress

Rahul Gandhi has led the reorganization of India's Congress Party since becoming Vice President of the party in 2013. At UC Berkeley, he will offer his reflections on contemporary India and the path forward for the world's largest democracy. He follows in the footsteps of his great grandfather Jawaharlal Nehru, India's first prime minister, who delivered a historic speech at Berkeley in 1949.

Monday, September 11, 2017

6:30 - 8:00 pm

Chevron Auditorium, UC Berkeley International House

Register at iis.berkeley.edu/rahulgandhi2017

Sponsored by the Berkeley Research on Contemporary India Program (Institute of International Studies) and the Institute for South Asia Studies