Panel Speaker Event:
Intersections of Political Identity between China, Taiwan, Hong Kong and Japan

Featured speakers: Professor Noam Yuchtman, Professor Thomas Gold, Yuting Chen

Venue: UC Berkeley Law School, Room 132, 6-8 pm, Tuesday, 3/29.

Panel speakers will cross-compare the sense of political identity across China, Japan, Hong Kong and Taiwan using statistical and survey-based analysis, personal experience, and economic research.

Strait Talk Berkeley Symposium Closing Ceremony and Consensus Presentation

Venue: UC Berkeley Faculty Club, O'Neill Room, 3-5 pm, Friday, 4/1

The Berkeley community is cordially invited to the Public Presentation and Closing Ceremony of the 2016 Strait Talk Berkeley Symposium (海峡尋新柏克莱論壇／海峡尋新伯克利论坛). This year's symposium takes place from March 27 - April 2, 2016. 13 delegates from Taiwan, Mainland China, and the United States were chosen to participate in speaker panels and 40+ hours of Interactive Conflict Resolution (ICR) sessions. Days of dialogue and discussion result in the drafting of a Consensus Document on economic, political and cultural ties as well as proposals of peace projects.

Sponsored by:

 Strait Talk Berkeley | http://straittalkberkeley.weebly.com | straittalk.berkeley@gmail.com