WE TOO SING AMERICA

SOUTH ASIAN, ARAB, MUSLIM, AND SIKH IMMIGRANTS SHAPE OUR MULTIRACIAL FUTURE

DEEPA IYER

Book Talk & Community Conversation with Deepa Iyer

Tuesday, January 19, 2016 at 6PM
UC Berkeley Ethnic Studies Library
30 Stephens Hall

Join Deepa Iyer and campus scholars and student activists for a discussion about the ongoing impact of post 9/11 narratives and policies on South Asian, Arab, Muslim, and Sikh communities – and what to do about it. Book signing to follow.

Cosponsored by: Asian American and Asian Diaspora Studies Program, Center for Race and Gender, Eastwind Books, Haas Institute for a Fair and Inclusive Society, and Institute for South Asia Studies
